Call for applications for study periods abroad as part of the Overseas Exchange Programme – Second Call

Academic year 2026/27

Following the selection process of candidates for the Overseas Exchange Programme 2026/27 call, the remaining vacant destinations and additional new ones that have been created following the signing of new agreements are made available.

Interested students can apply to this second call, for which the same provisions and procedures indicated in the Overseas Exchange Programme 2026/27 call published on the notice board on 21 January 2026 remain valid.
